

HTML SYLLABUS
OBJECTIVE: The objective of the session is to Impart the knowledge of Webdesign Using HTML. The outcome of the training is Designed in a way for students to learn and design website with ease and efficiency.
Duration:
S.NO	CONTENT	HOURS (L/P)
1	Introduction to HTML
	Course Overview
	History and Evolution of HTML
	Setting Up the Development Environment
	Basic Structure of an HTML Document
	Creating Your First Web Page
2	HTML Elements and Attributes
	Understanding HTML Tags
	Common HTML Elements (headings, paragraphs, links)
	Attributes and How to Use Them
	Void Elements (e.g., , <hr>,)
3	Text Formatting and Semantic HTML
	Text Formatting Tags (, , , ,)
	Semantic HTML (<header>, <nav>, <section>, <article>, <footer>)
	Using HTML5 Semantic Elements for Better Accessibility and SEO
4	Lists and Links
	Ordered and Unordered Lists (, ,)
	Nested Lists
	Creating Hyperlinks ( tag)
	Anchor Links and External Links
5	Images and Multimedia
	Embedding Images (tag, src and alt attributes)
	Adding Videos and Audio (<video>, <audio>, <source>)
	Using HTML5 Multimedia Elements
6	Tables
	Creating Tables (<table>, <tr>, <td>, <th>)
	Table Headers, Footers, and Captions
	Merging Cells (colspan and rowspan attributes)
	Styling Tables with CSS (Basic Introduction)
7	Forms and Input
	Creating Forms (<form>, action, method)
	Form Elements (<input>, <textarea>, <select>, <button>)
	Form Validation (Basic Introduction)
	Accessible Forms
8	HTML5 New Features
	New Input Types (email, url, date, color, etc.)
	HTML5 APIs (Canvas, Geolocation, Web Storage)
	Drag and Drop API
9	Introduction to CSS
	Inline, Internal, and External CSS
	Basic CSS Syntax and Selectors
	Applying Styles to HTML Elements
	Introduction to the Box Model

10	Advanced HTML Topics
	Meta Tags and Their Uses (<meta>)
	Favicons
	Responsive Web Design (Media Queries)
	Best Practices for Writing HTML	